DAMAGE IN STORM'S

NEW CASTLE, PA., FRIDAY, JULY 29, 1949 -24 PAGES

Another of the large trees to topple over onto homes was a huge Catalpa tree in the back yard of George Schenker's residence at 1810 East Washington street. The tree was uprooted and fell across the kitchen and roof of the house occupied by Rev. Charles A. Bailey and family, of 1812 East Washington street.

One of the homes where the effect of Thursday nights severe storm that swept, over the East Side area was noted was that of Floyd Smock, of 833 Lathrop street. A large tree was toppled over onto the house during the storm, as shown in the above photo. Numerous other homes were similarly affected by the storm, trees being blown over on them or toppling after being struck by lightning. The storm was one of the most severe in this area in recent years.

Power failure interrupted radio transmission in New Castle, and cut off the light in many homes in East New Castle last night when the storm caused a large oak tree at the Washington street entrance to Cascade Park to crash across power lines, breaking them. This photo, made from inside the park entrance, shows the tree lying between the stone pillars.

McGrath Is Appointed To Succeed Him As U. S. Attorney General

CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENTS SEEN

By JOHN BOOTH WASHINGTON, July 29. -Senate approval appears certain today for the nominations of Attorney General Tom Clark to the supreme court and of Sen. J. Howard McGrath to take over

Clark's post as head of the Justice Department. The one point of doubt is whether McGrath will be willing to give up the four years remaining of his term as Democratic Sena-

Hundreds Of Thousands Of Dollars Saved By Industries Reclaiming By-Products

HARRISBURG, July 29-(INS) -The state's multi-million dollar clean streams drive has saved hundreds of thousands of dollars for many industries.

Materials formerly poured back into streams as waste are now reclaimed for various uses.

The Sanitary Water Board, charged with enforcing laws to clear streams of pollution, reported Thursday that industrial waste treatment projects prompted in-dividual surveys which "in many instances" resulted in reclamation of various materials and greater profit for the industries.

More Efficient Production

The program also has set off a great deal of digging into industrial production plans aimed at more efficient production, the board said. The board reported many industries are "expressing gratitude for the pollution abatement orders caused them to discover tion. methods by which savings have been affected through reclamation products and in the process of manufacture.

Some concerns actually are making profits on materials they for-merly discharged into streams. The board has issued notices to abate pollution of rivers and other streams to more than 665 industries, while 125 plans for waste treatment works have been formulated by industries. Ninety eight plans have been approved by the pound to 1,000 board feet.

196 Firms Complied One-hundred and ninety-six firms have complied with the board's orders by submitting plans, abatement of discharge, halting discharge or entering into agreements with municipalities to allow

Applications Accepted

Approximately 228 applications for anthracite desilting projects have been accepted by the board.

As far as municipalities are con-cerned, the board has issued 559 notices for sewer extensions, 457 municipalities have engaged engineers to work on their projects, 157 plans have been approved by board and 192 municipalities have altered their sewer systems to abate pollution.

Steam Suffocates Four-Year-Old Girl

CHICAGO, July 29.—(INS)-A four-year-old girl was found suffo-cated by steam and 90 degree heat today in the small Chicago apart-ment she shared with her mother and police held the building owner and janitor pending an inquest.
Police said Mrs. Anna Capizzi

26, found her daughter, Louise dead, on the sofa of their apart-ment when she returned home from work at a cafeteria where she is a waitress.

Police said steam had poured into the one and a half room apartment from "an improperly capped" radiator which apparently had been connected with the building's hot water boiler.

Unfortunately, Gloucester—like most of New England—has some their children, here in Gloucester, ask my advice as to what to do, 'Take the $25 a week job; be the first there every morning, the last to leave every night; and help your employer make some money. The important thing is to 'get your foot in the door'. When I graduated from college, I tramped the streets six weeks looking for a job

A Lesson In Economics

The cost of honest and sensible living is the real thing in which we all should be interested. It's not how much money we get in our pay envelope, but rather how much that pay envelope will buy in food, clothing and shelter. Well, to increase this latter requires that more people shall work. Short hours and loafing send up costs whether this loafing is on the job or off the job. Only as more goods are produced, is there more to divide. This is another reason for taking a $25 to $30 a week job. It's a crime for any of us to loaf.

The business honeymoon is over but there is no need of a depression now if everyone will keep busy. The wages received are of secondary importance. Lower wages will cramp us for awhile and force our families to give up temporarily some things we now enjoy -perhaps beauty shops, dry cleaners, telephones and even automo-biles—but the family income at

This is contrary to good Republican doctrine; but I fear it will be tried.

Certainly, the system of price fixing was a big failure; and I believe that wage fixing, either by legislation or labor unions, bound to create unemployment and hence hold up costs. It seems fine to have a minimum wage of 75 cents per hour if you can get a and hence hold up costs. It seems 75 cents per hour if you can get a the pastor's course with 61 of his job at that wage; but if your employer can't afford it and you lose your present job at 60 cenis per hour you are worse off.

The victim, Mrs. Vera Jean Ripley, died of a .38 caliber bullet wound in the head only an hour after being taken to the hospital from the Carnival lounge, where the shooting occurred.

Her estranged husband, Leroy Ripley, 23, said he had met his wife at the nightspot last night in an attempt to patch up their diffant attempt to patch up wife at the nightspot last night in an attempt to patch up their difficulties. After three hours of talking, during which time Ripley said he drank gin while his wife drank soft drinks, Mrs. Ripley excused herself, went to the powder room and shot herself in the head with her father's revolver.

James Ackerman, manager of the club, said Ripley ran into the powder room. Sobbing and muttering, Ripley cradled his wife's head in his arms.

In Mrs. Ripley's purse was a note to her "Mother and Daddy," saying: diseases are catching.

Free Cup Of Coffee Proposed To Wake Up Tired Drivers

HARTFORD, Conn., July 29 .-(INS)—Surprised tourists, rolling along Connecticut's parkways in the early hours of the morning, may find themselves offered a free cup of coffee in the near future-

The cup of coffee, however, will be more than a mere expression of hospitality. State officials hope that it may save a life.

The plan has been appropriated.

The plan has been proposed by the Connecticut Highway Traffic Safety commission in an effort to cut down the number of accidents arising from driver fatigue.

Manager Billy Mongiello has nominated Ty Corbett and Joe Karakul in that order to pitch for the Nats tonight. Corbett lost a tough one at Youngstown Sunday 3 to 2, while Karakul lost to Vandergrift last Saturday 7 to 5 in 12 innings. Both boys are ready to pitch tonight.

New Castle fans will see three new faces in action tonight— Outfielder Pat Cavanaugh and H. Shapiro from Brooklyn are new since the team last played here and Hank Ruszkowski, former Cleveland Indians catcher, may catch one of the games tonight, perhaps the second game, having caught Karakul at Wilkes-Barre in 1944. when both boys were breaking into organized ball.

Cardinals And Dodgers Open Crucial Series

CARDS LEADING GAME AND HALF

Giants Edge Pirates 8 To 6, Indians Lose To Yankees 3 To 2

By LES CONKLIN

NEW YORK, July 29-Another one of those "crucial" series between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Brooklyn Dodgers will start in St. Louis tonight, with both teams primed for a Donnybrook.

The league-leading Cards, who have the Indian sign on Brooklyn Philadelphia Pittsburgh Cincinnati Chicago tween the St. Louis Cardinals and have the Indian sign on Brooklyn this year, are a game and a half in front of the Dodgers.

The Dodgers demonstrated that they have their batting togs on when they walloped the Chicago Cubs yesterday 7 to 1. They hit three homers, including a grand-slammer by Gene Hermanski which broke up the game. Big Ralph Branca notched his 11th victory.

Cards Trim Phils St. Louis unleashed a 16-hit barrage in trouncing the Phillies 10 to 2 behind Al Brazle. A three-run double by Chuck Diering ruined Ken Heintzelman, who had beaten the Cards three straight.

Warren Spahn of the Boston Braves held the Cincinnati Reds to six hits and downed them 11 to 2. Ed Sauer of Boston had a perfect day at bat with five hits, and four other Braves hit home runs.

A two-run homer by Sid Gordon enabled the New York Giants to defeat Pittsburgh again, 8 to 6. The Giants advanced to fourth place, passing the Phillies. Yanks Edge Tribe

In the American league, the New York Yankes increased their lead ovr the second-place Cleveland Indians to four games by shading them 3 to 2. The relief pitching of Joe Page and a sensational throw by Cliff Mapes in the ninth broke the back of the Cleveland rally. George Stirnweiss of the Yanks led the attack on Bob Lemon with o'clock today.

a triple and a double. Ellis Kinder of the Boston Red Sox 6 to 1 for his 11th win of the Boston's Ted Williams hit his 26th homer and Dom DiMaggio

Detroit scored seven runs in the ninth inning to beat Washington, 13 to 7. Dizzy Trout, one of our hittingest pitchers, climaxed the rally with a grand slam homer. A scheduled night game between the St. Louis Browns and the Athletics at Philadelphia was rained

THEY'LL DON GLOVES SEPT. 14

IT'S MERELY a handshake now but come Sept. 14 Charley Fusari (seated left) and Rocky Graziano (seated right) will shake fists at each other in the New York ring. The two middleweights have signed for a bout at the Polo Grounds for that date. Rocky, former 160-pound king, recently was reinstated. Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing club, is center. In rear (left to right) are Vic Marsillo, Fusari's manager; Al Weill, matchmaker, and Irving (International) Cohen, Graziano's manager.

Co-Captains will guide three State teams next season. They are Negley Norton, Altoona, Pa., and Bob Hicks, Lancaster, Pa., in football, El Belfield, Swarthmore, Pa., and Bob Louis, Philadelphia, in LaCrosse, and Bill Aiken, Pittsburgh, and Owen Landon Jr., Williamsport, in Tennis.

H. R. Gilbert, graduate manager of Penn State's athletics, is the newly-elected president of the Eastern Intercollegiate Golf Association. Elected by mail ballot, he succeeds Rome F. Schwagel, who withdrew when he resigned as graduate manager of athletics at Georgetown University.

Reports Employment Crisis Not Imminent

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.—
(INS)—The Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia reported today that a "crisis is not imminent" in the The FRB said, "appears to be underway," but the automotive industry "has not yet begun to feel the results of catching up."

The report added: employment picture in the nation. In a mid-year review of the na-tional business situation, the FRB might be temporary, could add virtually every business barometer cumulative deepening of recession has receded from its post-war "This danger is real and it will peak. The most descriptive term for this process is 'adjustment.' "Some war and post-war distortions are bing ironed out. For the most part, recent declines have been orderly, and banking has taken the changes in stride.

"Unemployment, a serious prob-lem in some communities, has been growing. Still, 60 million people are at work, and thus far, crisis is not imminent.

'Monetary and fiscal policies are being adapted to the new situation.

Danger Minimized

"Moreover, institutional changes in our economy tend to minimize the danger of another 1929." The FRB warned, however, that ome "corrections" are "still necessary" in the nation's economy.

These "corrections," the report contended, may be "painful." The Federal Reserve Bank declared that 'one of the most dis-turbing elements" in the business scene is the prospect of readjustment in the steel and automobile The process in the steel indus-

Policy Group For Far East To Meet

WASHINGTON, July 29.—(INS The special group being set up by Secretary of State Acheson to overhaul American policy in the Far East is expected to get down to work within the next ten days

Officials said Thursday that this estimate is based on the assumption that two unidentified civilians from outside the government will serve. Some time may be lost in picking an alternate if either refuses.

The red-hot issue of what to do about the spreading Communist drive in China will be dropped into the lap of the advisory body.

But Acheson has made it clear that the group, under the direction of Ambassador-at-Large Philip C. Jessup, will deal with the whole Far Eastern situation.

This raised a possibility that it may make a study of this proposed Pacific Pact which has been suggested by China's Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and Philippine President Quirino
